Directed by Adele
Bertei. With Michael
Ensign, Johnny Green,
Gladise Jiminez, Amy
Lindsay. After a rich woman dies, her friends and relatives
meet at her mansion to await the reading of her will. Over the evening, many of them
hook up and have a passionate night
together, including the maid. But someone's watching them.

story that needs to let loose, to be sexy, naughty, funny, or all three. This version is just boring, though it is beautiful to look at.

Stick with either adaptation that has come before this one for a better film, even if Léa Seydoux gives a standout performance with little to work with here.

Novel

Surrealist Luis Buñuel's Diary of a Chambermaid is a withering critique of the rise of 1930s fascism, based on Octave Mirbeau's 1900 novel of the same name. It satirically depicts a society revelling in the perversity of it's political, social and sexual conventions.

The book that I publish under this title, "A Chambermaid's Diary," was really written by Mlle. C lestine R——, chambermaid. When I was asked to revise the manuscript, to correct it, and to rewrite some parts of it, I refused at first, thinking, not without reason, that, just as it was, in all its disorder, this diary had a certain originality, a special savor, and that
