The Marquis and I by Ella Quinn, Paperback | Barnes & Noble®

The Marquis and I was my first exposure to author Ella Quinn. This work is a decent read in the Regency genre though I am not able to rate it more than 3 1/2 to 4 stars. There were several things I like about it and some I didn't. First of all, I like the storyline which focused on the abduction of Lady Charlotte Carpenter outside her home by thugs.

If the Marquis de Fumerol, one of the greatest names in France, were to die without the ministrations of religion, it would assuredly be a terrible blow to the nobility in general, and to the Count de Tourneville in particular, and the freethinkers would be triumphant. The liberal newspapers would sing songs of victory for six months; my mother ...
