Utter rejection of the edict thou shalt not covet, Tony explains, is fundamental to almost all wrongdoing; and Jeff, an agnostic at best, readily grasps the concept. What surfaces during the investigation is a web of lies that spreads far beyond what could have been imagined, a conspiracy with the endlessly dangerous evil of covetousness at its core.

According to Eugene Cho, Christians should never profess blind loyalty to a party. Any party. But they should engage with politics, because politics inform policies which impact people. In Thou Shalt Not Be a Jerk: A Christian's Guide to Engaging Politics, Cho encourages readers to remember that hope arrived—not in a politician, system, or great nation—but in the person of Jesus Christ.
